

Conference papers and presentations made in 2012 – 2013

Hospice author	Title of paper	Date and place
Rosemary Canfua	Cancer problems in Africa: "Hospice Africa Uganda as a PC Model for Sub Saharan African Countries". Featuring the Hospice video; "Uganda no country for old men", HAU 2010.	6 th May Russia- Moscow during the World Cancer Congress 2012
Anne Merriman	Global importance of palliative care, with special reference to Africa	IPRI conference for leaders in cancer, Lyon, France, June
Eddie Mwebesa	Morphine and its production in Uganda	Fellows' Conference, 27August. Institute for Palliative Medicine, San Diego Hospice
Eddie Mwebesa	Palliative Care: What has been going on?	Noon Conference, 11 th September Institute for Palliative Medicine, San Diego Hospice
Nandaula Sarah	Review of treatment outcomes of Kaposi's sarcoma in children at HAU	3rd KEHPCA conference, 12 th -14 th September
Zena Bernacca	The Usefulness of Mentorship in Organisational Life A whole Person Learning Approach	3rd KEHPCA conference, 12 th -14 th September
Anne Merriman	Promoting public-private partnerships for cancer research in Africa two examples from Uganda	Cancer research in Africa: Building trans-national research Collaborations Afrox conference London, 15 th September

Nandaula Sarah	Review of treatment outcomes of Kaposi's sarcoma in children at HAU	19th palliative congress , 9 th - 12 th October, Montreal , Canada
Eddie Mwebesa	Palliative Care in Africa	20 th November, at Mulago Hospital For the East African Diploma in Tropical Medicine and Hygiene
Anne Merriman in Malawi	Invited speaker in Malawi following titles: Current challenges to Hospice care in Africa Palliative care in older persons Current challenges to Hospice care in Africa	Mulanje Presbyterian Hospital PACAM Queen Elizabeth medical school Blantyre PC meeting Malawi November – December
Anne Merriman	Contributing participant in the international consensus conference on improving the spiritual dimension of whole person care (ICC). Bringing spirituality into the who definition of health	Geneva Jan 2013
Anne Merriman in DRC	The role of palliative care and oral morphine in control of pain in DRC The need for palliative care and oral morphine in control of pain in DRC African palliative care today, with special reference to DRC	L'hôpital general de reference de Kinshasa 12 th February Universiti de Kinshasa 13 th February Government of DRC meeting on palliative care, Kinshasa 14 th February

Publications made in 2012 – 2013

Hospice author	Title of paper/journal or book	Date and publisher
Karen I Frame, Anne Merriman	Palliative care in Africa, chap 77(879-886) in Principles of Medicine in Africa, 4 th edn, ed. David Mabey et al.	Cambridge University Press 2012.
Editor: professor Dr Anne Merriman	Freedom from Pain: second edition in English First edition in French April 2012	Hospice Africa Uganda publications May 2012
Anne Merriman	The story of affordable morphine in Africa: from Singapore with love	Contact no. 195, Nov 2012
Luzia Travado, Jan Geissler, Kim Thiboldeaux, Jeff Dunn, Ranjit Kaur, Anne Merriman	In Chap 19: Psycho-oncology and advocacy in cancer care - an International Perspective: Africa in: Book Clinical psycho- oncology: an international perspective	Book, John Wiley Ltd, August 2012
Anne Merriman, Eddie Mwebesa, Prof Elly Katabira	Blue book 5th edition: Pain and Symptom Control in the cancer and/or AIDS patient in Uganda and other African Countries	Hospice Africa Uganda Publications 2012
French translation of Merriman A	French edition of 4th edition of Blue Book and Freedom from Pain 1st edition	Hospice Africa Uganda 2012
Dr Zirimenya Ludoviko and Sarah Nandaula	Prevention of cancer –Bukeddde and Monitor newspapers	Uganda 13 th Sept 2012

Other online publications and web links

- Life Before Death “Nurse in the House” video featuring Martha Rabwoni - <http://blip.tv/moonshinemovies/life-before-death-nurse-in-the-house-6046524>
- Access to morphine - local production <http://treatthepain.org/blog%20obrien%20Nigeria%20July2013.html>